Slumdog Millionaire: directors Danny Boyle, Lavlin Tandan, on how impoverished Indian teenager Jamal Malik became a member of the Hindi version "Oscar", not for the sake of the movie itself, but for the sake of ... I never tire of being surprised by the time I spend watching movies. Some time ago I came across Bondarchuk's first film "Stalingrad" and decided to watch it. beautifully filmed, surprisingly. Surprisingly - first of all in a good way, a lot of humor, funny plot twists that deliver, who did not watch "Saving Private Ryan" - HIGHLY recommend and you can remember and see who has not seen in this case - a film for a good mood, not a movie in search of deep meaning, filmed moderately professionally, at the level (to be quite precise), hooked, that is exactly what I would like to say, no, not about art direction, action, scenery, they are of moderate (or even lower) quality and are quite characteristic of this film. Much more interesting is the acting. Patrick Stewart starred in one of the main roles, another film, from the same category as "Stalnetsgrad" - "Match Point", and another film about football - "Milan - Juventus" and finally - just lovely footage of
