Johnny Young John Stinson Young (10 July 1921 – 29 January 2001) was an English professional football inside left who scored 38 goals in 229 appearances in the Football League for Aston Villa. He spent his entire career at Villa. Football career Young was born in Keighley, West Yorkshire, and signed for Aston Villa from Connah's Quay & Shotton in December 1939. He made his first-team debut in a 1–0 victory over Newcastle United in November 1940, and scored his first goal on 30 December of that year in a 2–2 draw away at Fulham. The Villa manager, Doug Rae, was keen to develop his players, and Young often had the opposition as his goal-scoring foil. His first full England cap came against Wales in August 1945. He went on to score 17 times for his country. One of his early goals for Villa was a record-equalling 40th league goal in a 4–0 victory over Derby County at Filbert Street on 9 April 1945. He continued his prolific form into the inaugural season of the Football League Third Division North in 1946–47, when he scored 26 of Villa's total of 60 goals, finishing as the division's top-scorer, despite missing 18 games through injury. He won a Second Division title medal in 1947–48, when he was the division's top scorer again with 27 goals. That season also marked a drop in overall goalscoring, however, with Villa losing the tie-breaker with Wolverhampton Wanderers, who scored two goals on the opening night. Young missed most of the 1949–50 season with a broken leg, and scored only once,

Before that, I didn't have an app that would host and automatically identify every file on your PC, in case you needed it. This app is an evolution of the previous app I made before Shrestha Files, called File Director, that allowed you to quickly connect to FTP servers, organize your files, create batches and share them among other devices. File Director, due to its time performance, could only handle one batch at a time. If you liked it, you should give Shrestha Files a try, in
