I am a very social, friendly person with a few close friends who I spend time with. But here in China, a lot of people I meet for the first time want to be my friend. I met this lovely little girl the other day. Her name is Jia Chen and she is four years old. We were playing together and she kept hitting me with a plastic blowgun and a bright pink bow. I told her no and she gave me a hug. We had a little fun. She told me her name was Ba Hua. I asked her where she lived. She pointed to the place where I was sitting and told me she lived there. I asked her if she liked it and she said, "No, I like water." I know the kid is smart, I mean at four years old she could easily have said, "I like water," but I still thought that was pretty funny. She was the first kid I have met that was that direct about not liking her place. She did say she liked my apartment. The next day, I went to ca3bfb1094
