As the situation in Belize is very volatile at the moment, it becomes incumbent on the GoB to ensure that measures to evacuate those who do not wish to be evacuated are done to the best of their ability. However, there are many issues that need to be addressed on the part of the GoB before they can exercise such power. Right of Refusal In order to exercise their power to evacuate people from a certain place, the GoB must determine who has the right of refusal. How can one individual say whether another individual has the right to refuse to be evacuated? There must be laws that define the set of conditions under which one can refuse to be evacuated and one cannot refuse to be evacuated.
