In triton beach, on the left side of the stage is a. lansing worldwide tech solution directy 1520c driver. to 9.. and didn't have the time or the inclination to write a book. Read more about Mike. I am Mike. That Mike, not this. I have for years shared my thoughts on the topic of being a traveler, a seeker of the truth, a human in the world and the answer to the question of Why on earth are we here? These thoughts are turning into a book. A Kindle book for Kindle, obviously. I love my Kindle and the reading experience, but I don't want to put my thoughts into black & white text, both for content and for presentation. I don't want to blame myself for any shortcomings of a book that won't be published and won't be read by anyone. I love to travel. That's a fact. It's part of the way I think about things. I like it. I want people to know that. That's why I write this blog. The book. Not me. In a time when people are searching for meaning in their lives and I know that that is a very real search, I want to help. I want to address the reasons why people are travelers, why they wake up every day and want to explore the world and what that means to us all. I want to explore this stuff, including the paradoxes, the grey areas, the mysterious parts that make us love this life and the power of human compassion. To what extent are we our own prison? To what extent are we responsible for what goes on in this world? To what extent are we our own jailer? Are we the author of our own destiny or victim of our own choices? I want to explore these things and my own ideas about it. I want to share it with you so that you can think about it too, so that we can each find our own truths and maybe even find some common ground. This has the potential to be the most important book I've ever written. As a psychological exploration of human nature it could be a classic. My hope is that it's readable, accessible and worthwhile. I hope that people who are traveling can find some support. I hope that
