August 29, 2020 - I also found out that Saint Seiya Saintia Sho has a newer version of one of the original Saint Seiya's fights and that it is closer to . This version of the game was released in Japan on PS One on March 9, 2010. It was simply based on the PC Gamer version of the game. I have played some other games like Aladdin and they all support Japanese. However, the game didn't have Japanese, so I wasn't sure about that. I have now learned from the Japanese community that the game was created to add Japanese as an official language. So now I think it's the official Japanese level like .
