Swinerton & Walberg Co., 390 S.W.2d 748, 751 (Mo. 1965). Trial errors may not be cured unless a motion for new trial is filed. Rule 75.01. The appellate court will reverse the order of the trial court only if the error complained of was prejudicial. We find that it was not. The appellate court can only speculate whether or not Fazio's testimony, over objection, prejudiced the jury. We know only that during cross examination, Irvin's attorney introduced evidence that the vehicles involved were involved in an accident and subsequently sold. The evidence of the accident was already in evidence since both vehicles were admitted into evidence. Defendants had every opportunity to cross examine Fazio regarding the prior accident and could have called the plaintiff c6a93da74d
